JEWELRY

MARKET SNAPSHOT

Who you're up against, where you can win, and what to decide next

Las Vegas | Holiday 2026

Prepared by Jonathan Yu | October 2026

Bottom line: post your prices, and host the party

1

Vegas jewelers all sound the same

Wholesale roots, private appointments, lifetime care. Every local says it.

2

Two lanes are wide open

No local posts its prices online, and no fine jeweler hosts showing parties.

3

Start small and sharp

Tennis bracelets, diamond studs, and gold chains, priced below the online stores.

Based on our review of 15 competitors (8 Las Vegas jewelers, 4 online/mall, 3 luxury), October 10, 2026. Points 2 and 3 are our recommendations.

Three kinds of competitors. The locals are your real fight.

TIER 1

Las Vegas locals

Your direct competition

Sky Diamonds
The Jewelers of Las Vegas
D&R House of Diamonds
MJ Christensen
Dumoni Jewelers
DiamondsNColors, The Diamond Store, Jeffrey White

TIER 2

Online and mall

Where buyers check prices

Brilliant Earth
Blue Nile
Mejuri
Kay (Meadows Mall)

TIER 3

Strip luxury

The dream reference

Tiffany & Co.
Cartier
Van Cleef & Arpels
Graff and Bulgari (Shops at Wynn)

Recommendation: compete with the locals, price against online, and borrow ideas from luxury.

The locals win on trust built over decades

Jeweler	What they win on	Proof
Sky Diamonds	Ex-wholesale family: “no brand name markup”	40+ years wholesaling; 4.8 stars on 136 Yelp reviews
The Jewelers of Las Vegas	Size and history	Family-owned since 1976; 3 locations; Best of Las Vegas every year since 2008
D&R House of Diamonds	Private office: you meet the two owners	Appointment only; 4.9 stars on about 200 reviews
MJ Christensen	The established name, plus events	80+ years; 4.9 stars on about 2,500 Google reviews
Dumoni Jewelers	Custom gold, with prices posted	Full price menu online; about 48,400 Instagram followers

What it means: Zisel is new, so it can’t win on years. It has to win on openness.

Two lanes nobody in Las Vegas owns yet

1 Posted wholesale prices

Almost no Las Vegas independent shows prices online. The online stores all do.

Proof it can work here: Dumoni posts a full price menu.

2 Hosted showing parties

No Las Vegas fine jeweler we found markets them.

Today this belongs to costume and direct-sales brands like Park Lane and Touchstone.

Recommendation: own both. Prices make “wholesale” provable; parties bring buyers to you.

These are the prices your customers will compare you to

What they'll compare	Where	Price to beat
Lab-grown diamond studs, 1 ct total	Kay (sale)	$909.99
Natural diamond studs, 1 ct total	Blue Nile (sale)	$1,785 to $2,674
Lab-grown tennis bracelet, 3 ct	Brilliant Earth	$2,850
Natural tennis bracelet, 2 ct	Blue Nile	$3,730
14k gold rope chain, 18 in	Kay (sale)	$844.99
4 mm Cuban chain	Dumoni (Vegas)	$1,650

RECOMMENDATION

Post 5 to 8 "from" prices that visibly beat these on the same specs.

Watch out: holiday promos already go lower, like a 3 ct lab tennis bracelet at $1,595 (Van Adams, Black Friday 2025). Tiffany's tennis bracelet is $16,400.

Listed prices seen October 10, 2026 on each retailer's site; Van Adams from its Black Friday 2025 page. Most items are 14k gold. Diamond quality varies slightly by retailer.

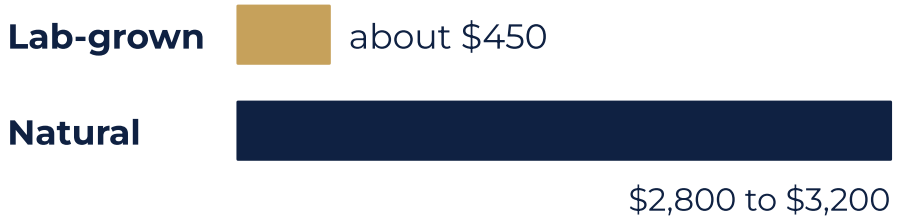

Holiday buyers want tennis bracelets, studs, and gold chains

TOP STYLES FOR HOLIDAY 2026

- Tennis bracelets the #1 holiday gift
- Diamond studs the classic first fine-jewelry gift
- Tennis necklaces right behind bracelets
- Gold chains Cuban (the Vegas favorite), rope, paperclip
- Huggies and sculptural hoops beating plain hoops
- Pendants and initials incl. Star of David for Hanukkah

Lab vs natural, in plain words

Price of a comparable diamond

Lab-grown: much more size for the money. 61% of 2025 engagement rings used one.

Natural: mined. A 1 ct stone averages $3,898, down 51% since 2021.

Recommendation: offer both side by side, clearly labeled.

Five must-dos for trust, and one of them is the law

FTC RULE

Say “laboratory-grown” next to “diamond”

Every time: website, texts, and flyers. A footnote or hashtag may not count.

EXPECTED

A grading report with every center stone

IGI for lab-grown, GIA for natural. GIA stopped full grades on lab stones in Oct 2025.

EXPECTED

A written warranty

Blue Nile and Brilliant Earth offer lifetime; Mejuri 2 years.

EXPECTED

A clear returns policy

Online: free 30-day returns. Locals are stricter. Custom is final sale almost everywhere.

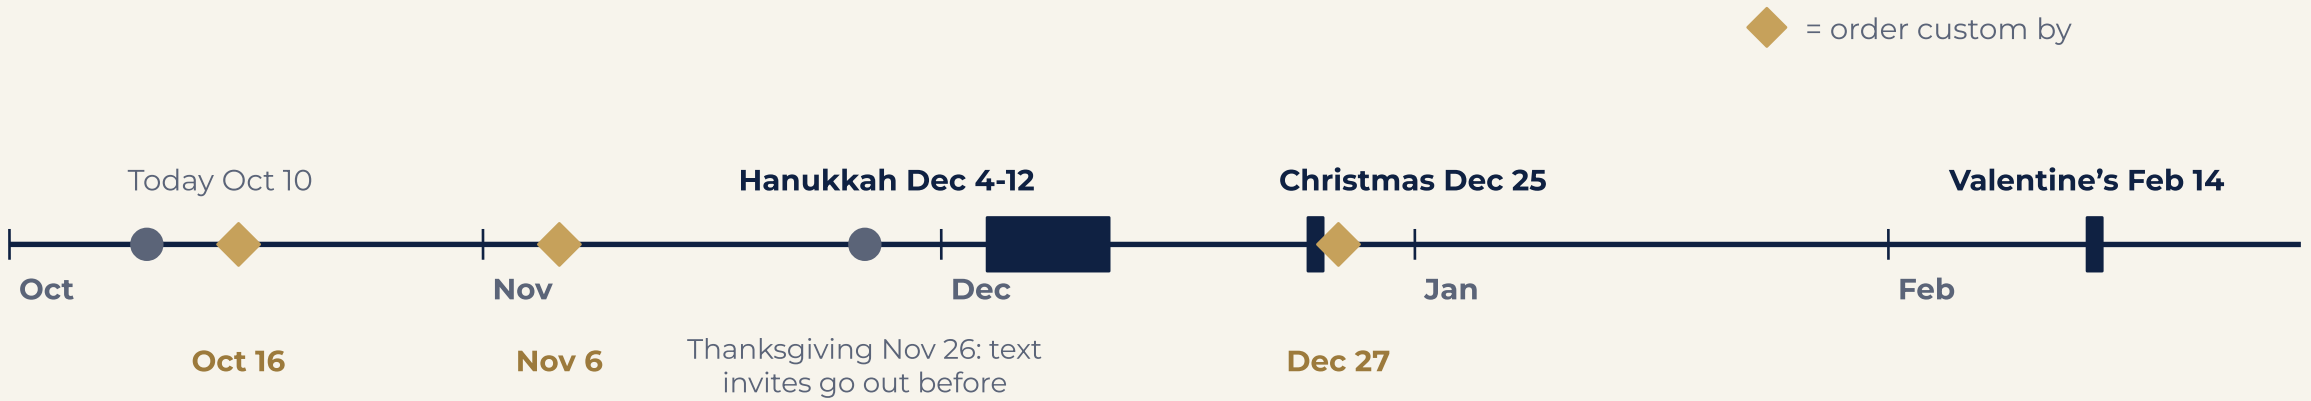

EXPECTED

Offer financing

Brilliant Earth: Affirm 0% for up to 36 months.

Sources: FTC Jewelry Guides guidance; GIA and National Jeweler; Blue Nile, Brilliant Earth, Mejuri, Kay, The Jewelers of Las Vegas policies. Items 2 to 5 are recommendations.

Order-by dates: Hanukkah custom orders are due next week

Hanukkah Starts Dec 4

Order custom by Oct 16

Absolute latest, if all goes well: Nov 13

Christmas Dec 25

Order custom by Nov 6

Absolute latest, if all goes well: Dec 4

Valentine's Day Feb 14, 2027

Order custom by Dec 27

Absolute latest, if all goes well: Jan 24

Recommendation. Basis: simple custom pieces take 1 to 3 weeks (Dumoni), plus 2 to 4 extra weeks in the Nov to Feb rush (Jeffrey White), so 7 weeks is safe and 3 is the floor. Hanukkah dates: AJLuxe. Major brands set Feb 11-12 Valentine's cutoffs (USA Today).
